These collections of the most notable lyrics in German, Italian and French have been prepared to meet the needs of our large and ever increasing class of earnest aspirants to true artistry. The songs are presented always with the original text in order that their full flavor and significance may be preserved, and because a poem which does not suffer by translation is a thing hardly conceivable.

GEMS OF ANTIQUITY. Edited by Dr. Otto Neitzel.
One Volume.

This anthology of song, collected and edited by one of the greatest scholars of music of modern times, presents a work of unusual interest to voice teachers, singers and music students generally; in contrast to the ephemeral character of the average anthology. The amount of material used and the carefulness of the research indicated by the selections, mark this volume as one of essential value to all who are really interested in the "Art of Song."

SACRED SONGS. Edited by W. J. Henderson.
Four Volumes. One each for Soprano—Alto—Tenor—Bass.

The group of songs contained in this set is the greatest contribution yet made to collective sacred songs, and cannot fail to make a very powerful appeal to the interests of all singers.

ORATORIO SONGS.

SACRED DUETS. Edited by William Shakespeare.
Two Volumes. One for two high voices.
One for one high and one low voice.

Recognizing the demand for collated material for two-part singing in the service of the Church, the editor of these volumes, mindful of the fact that the efficiency of good music is not caused by its novelty, has here compiled standard duets from many sources and from all eras of music. The volume for two high voices is suitable for two sopranos, two tenors or soprano and tenor; the volume for one high and one low voice is practicable for soprano and alto, for tenor and alto or for soprano and baritone.
